

SOME NEWS NOTES FROM THE STATE

Elkhorn, Wis., April 3.—Samuel Mallory, the oldest person in Walworth county, died at his home here. Had he lived until April 18 he would have been ninety-nine years old. He was a native of Connecticut, came to Wisconsin in 1844, and had since lived in Elkhorn. He was county surveyor two terms.

Ocotage Grove, Wis., April 3.—Fire destroyed the barn and shed of John and James Mahanna, living on a farm two miles east of the village of Ocotage Grove. ### Railroad Hands Laid Off.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 3.—The 10,000 union brewery employes in Milwaukee have submitted a demand for eight hours' work a day for ten hours' pay. This may lead to a strike. The agreement which expired yesterday required ten hours' work. The employers, while not formally refusing the demand, submitted a counter proposition, the terms of which have not been made public. It is said the union men refused to consider this proposition.

French Statesman Is Excited.

Paris, April 3.—At Friday's session of the senate, M. Fabre called on the government to prevent the interference of the pope in French politics.

THE SENTENCE CONFIRMED.

Indiana Supreme Court Sustains the Rev. Mr. Hinshaw Verdict.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 3.—By a decision of the Supreme court, handed down at a late hour Friday night, the case of Rev. William E. Hinshaw of Hendricks county, convicted of wife murder and sentenced to life imprisonment, is affirmed. The court exhaustively reviews the evidence in the case, critically examines the rulings of the trial court and reaches the conclusion that Thurese Hinshaw was murdered by her husband.

The case has attracted great attention throughout the state, and especially among the members of Methodist church, of which denomination Rev. Mr. Hinshaw was considered one of the brightest young ministers. The murder occurred in January, 1895, and the husband attempted to show that robbers had entered his house, shot his wife as she raised up in bed and after severely wounding him had escaped. His own pistol and razor were found in the yard, and the circumstances pointed to him so strongly as the murderer that he was arrested, tried and found guilty.

The Supreme court's opinion, in which the entire court concurs, sustains the finding of the jury and decrees that Hinshaw shall serve the life sentence.

WEYLER MUST BE MERCIFUL

Secretary Sherman Tells Spain to Spare the Cuban Leader.

Washington, April 3.—Secretary of State Sherman has protested against the execution of Gen. Ruis Rivera, the Cuban leader in Pinar del Rio who was recently captured by the Spanish forces.

President McKinley and Secretary Sherman discussed the Rivera case, and the latter at the President's suggestion communicated with Senor de Lome, the Spanish minister. Secretary Sherman, in his blunt way, told the Spanish representative that the execution of prisoners of war was abhorrent to the American people. In the Rivera case this repugnance to the murder of men captured in civilized warfare was aggravated by the fact that the prisoner is badly wounded.

It is not doubted that Senor de Lome has communicated the substance of this informal protest to his government, and there are reasons for believing that the Spanish authorities will cable orders to Havana which will save Rivera's life.

GREEKS ARE URGED TO ACT.

Papers of Athens Want War Declared at Once.

Athens, April 3.—The newspapers unanimously urge the government to take prompt action before the powers present an ultimatum. The decision of the government is not yet known, if, indeed, a final decision has been reached, but it is believed in official circles that both the king and the cabinet will favor active measures.

It is reported here that there is great excitement among the Macedonians and Epirotes in Thessaly because of the rumors of excesses committed by the Turkish troops in Macedonia.

Set Fires in Chicago.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 3.—William Bloom, under arrest here on the charge of arson, has made a sensational confession to the fire warden. He declares with considerable pride that he has been setting fire to buildings in various cities for five years. During the big railroad strike in Chicago a few years ago, he says, he was a militiaman and set fire to a grain elevator, other buildings and fifty railroad cars. Bloom also says that he operated successfully in Windsor, Canada, Port Huron and Mount Clemens, Mich., as well as in Detroit, his former home, where he started forty fires. His confession concerning his career in Detroit has been corroborated by the fire marshal of that place.

To Recognize Religious Denominations.

Berlin, April 3.—After an animated debate the reichstag adopted a motion to reintroduce in the courts the administration of the oath according to the different religious denominations. The imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe voted with the minority. A centrist motion in favor of the complete abrogation of the Jesuit exclusion law was hotly debated and finally adopted.

Bar Out Gold Democrats.

Waukegan, Ill., April 3.—The Democratic city convention held Friday night nominated Dr. William W. Pearce on a harbor platform that favors keeping the dock front for the people. Opposed to Dr. Pearce for the nomination was R. S. Ferguson, who favors the DeWolf plan. A motion to bar gold Democrats from voting was carried amid much applause.

End of Philippine War.

Washington, April 3.—The Spanish legation has received official dispatches from Madrid under date of April 1 announcing the most decisive engagements in the Philippine islands since the insurrection there began. The officials of the Spanish legation are highly gratified at the announcements, and state that the results practically close the conflict in the islands.

WILL ALTER RATES OF TARIFF BILL

SENATE LIKELY TO AMEND THE DINGLEY MEASURE.

Members of the Finance Committee Promise Revisions in the House Tariff Schedules—Secretary Gage Will Enforce Retroactive Provision Discuss the Forest Reservation.

Washington, April 3.—The republican members of the senate committee on finance are continuing their work day and night on the tariff bill, with the intention of reporting it to the senate at the earliest possible day. They are not yet prepared to give out any of the results of their investigations, and say that they have not reached any conclusions upon any schedules of the bill. There is, however, a well-defined impression about the senate that the bill will be generally remodeled and the rates considerably reduced in many of the schedules. A member of the committee is quoted by another senator as authority for the specific statement that carpet duties would be cut. There is also general belief among western senators that there will be material changes in the rates on wools, especially on those of the third class.

Among other suggestions which have been urged upon the committee is a return to the Wilson law of 8 cents a pound duty on hops, instead of the 15 cents provided by the Dingley bill. It is claimed that the proposed increase will be an injury rather than a benefit to the producer and a hardship to the consumer.

A uniform rate on all imported tobacco suitable for cigar purposes is also suggested. It is asserted that the enactment of the Dingley rates into law would result in throwing 300,000 cigar-makers out of employment.

There is also much contention about the lumber schedules, as there is about many other schedules. The American lumbermen interested in Canadian forests appear to be especially concerned over the Dingley rates.

Discuss the Forest Reservations.

Washington, April 3.—The cabinet was in session less than two hours Friday, and the principal question discussed was that of rescinding the order of ex-President Cleveland setting apart twenty-one forest reservations in the west. The outcome was instructions that the national forestry commission be summoned to Washington to talk over their work with the president. It is understood that the sentiment was unanimous that President Cleveland's proclamation was too comprehensive.

Will Urge Monetary Legislation.

Washington, April 3.—The members of the executive committee appointed by the Indianapolis monetary conference last January have decided to establish headquarters here in an endeavor to procure from congress some such legislation at this session as will empower the President to appoint a committee to consider the subject before the regular session of congress convenes in December.

Gage Will Enforce It.

Washington, April 3.—Secretary Gage will enforce the retroactive provision of the Dingley tariff bill, making its duties apply to all imports not ordered previous to April 1. He made definite announcement to that effect Friday. The necessary regulations will probably be promulgated today.

The Interstate Commerce Inquiry.

Washington, April 3.—The interstate commerce commissioners left here today to begin an investigation of charges of discrimination made against a number of railroads. They will go over the Southern railway to Savannah, and then to Jacksonville, Fla., and Austin, Tex. The commission will be away several weeks.

Vacation for the President.

Washington, April 3.—President McKinley has in contemplation a brief vacation from his official duties. Nothing has been determined, yet it is probable that he will avail himself of the presence here of the dispatch boat Dolphin and go down the Potomac river for a couple of days about the middle of next week.

Rear Admiral Ramsay Retired.

Washington, April 5.—The formal order placing Rear Admiral Ramsay, chief of the navigation bureau, on the retired list, was issued Friday from the navy department.

Oxford Wins Athletic Games.

London, April 3.—The annual field and track games between teams representing the universities of Oxford and Cambridge took place Friday at the Queen's club grounds. Oxford won the games by a score of 4 to 3, with two ties.

For Corbett and Fitz.

Boston, Mass., April 3.—A syndicate of wealthy patrons of sport has subscribed a purse of $15,000 for a twenty-round contest between Corbett and Fitzsimmons to take place in New York at a date to be agreed upon.

FOLK OF THE NORTH IN GREAT DISTRESS

FOOD AND HOMES NEEDED AT SOUTH ST. PAUL.

Destitute People Take Refuge in Schoolhouses and Halls—Gloomy Situation in Arkansas—St. Louis People Warned of Coming Floods—Austin is the Flood Center.

St. Paul, Minn., April 3.—The Mississippi reached seventeen feet—three feet above the high-water mark—at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. Every family on the Bohemian flats and every family east of State street on the west side has been driven from home. These are being cared for in school houses, halls and elsewhere. Mayor Doran has made $1,000 immediately available for their use and the city council special session will appropriate $2,500. The signal service holds out no hope for a fall in the river for at least a week. River reports show that the Mississippi is rising at all points as far north as Grand Rapids.

Austin the Flood Center.

Memphis, Tenn., April 3.—The flood situation has once more become acute from a point a few miles above Austin, Miss., as far down as the first break at Perthshire, Miss., and a crevasse in this line of levees would not be surprising. The water is now so high in the St. Francis basin that the current rushes from the west and cuts along the east shore levee for miles, and several alarming telegrams have been received from near Austin, and the situation is most grave. A crevasse at Austin would inundate a strip of fertile country in Tunica and Coahoma Counties twenty miles wide and sixty miles long.

Many Warnings Sent Out.

St. Louis, Mo., April 3.—Weather Observer Frankenhof has warned people on this side of the river and in East St. Louis, whose places are in danger of being flooded, that the danger line will be reached within the next forty-eight hours. In addition the warnings were also sent to Clarksville, Canton, La Grange and Louisiana, Mo., and Quincy, Alton and Grafton, Ill., apprising them of the expected rise. Mr. Frankenhof says the two points where the greatest danger will exist for the next twenty-four hours are Hannibal, Mo., and Quincy, Ill.

Bad News in Arkansas.

Hamburg, Ark., April 3.—News from the threatened and flooded district is not hopeful. It looks as if all the country on the east bank of the Mississippi from Arkansas City down to Vicksburg would be devastated. It is estimated that 1,200 families are already homeless and destitute in the overflowed section. The scene is distressing. There are 1,000 negroes working on levees from Gaines to Luna Landing. The water is within six inches of the top of the levee. The men are topping the whole line of levee with sand bags.

Two Bridges Washed Away.

Little Rock, Ark., April 3.—No trains have arrived here from St. Louis over the Iron Mountain since Wednesday. Two bridges washed away thirty miles out of that city are the cause of delay. More farming land is now inundated in Arkansas than ever before in the history of the state. Farmers, however, are hopeful that the waters will recede by April 15, and claim they can raise good crops between that time and fall.

Flour Mills Shut Down.

Stillwater, Minn., April 3.—The water in the St. Croix is now over fifteen feet above low-water mark, and still rapidly rising. It is higher now than it has been for twenty years. The Staples and Stillwater flour mills have been obliged to shut down.

Working Night and Day.

Quincy, Ill., April 3.—The weather bureau sends warning that the Mississippi flood here will reach the seventeen-foot danger line within the next day or two. The levees are still safe, but men are working night and day to hold them.

Frank Butler Attempts Suicide.

San Francisco, Cal., April 3.—Frank Butler, the alleged Australian murderer, made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide Friday in the presence of two guards. With his long thumb nail he had made a ragged incision near the temporal artery. The wound went through the flesh almost to the bone, and would have been serious if Butler had been more successful in locating the artery. He is all right now and his guards will not again relax their vigilance until he sails for Australia at noon tomorrow.

Boys Executed for Murder.

Lafayette, La., April 3.—Alexis and Ernest Blanc, brothers, were executed here Friday in the presence of 8,000 spectators, for the murder of Simon Begnaud, a merchant, at Scott, La., about a year ago. The boys were each under 20 years of age.

Choose Mr. Keefe Chairman.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—The state board of arbitration met Friday and organized by electing D. J. Keefe chairman.

THE MARKETS ARE WAITING

Dun & Company's Review Says That Business Picks Up Slowly.

New York, April 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The markets are still waiting, some sagging downward and others recovering. The vote of the house in favor of a new tariff bill has made no impression in business, since it has been expected since November that some measure of the same general character would become a law.

"The market for products has been variable and uncertain. Wheat closes 1 cent lower than last week, and the May option has declined 2 cents, and lantic exports, flour included, have been 2,781,557 bushels, against 1,951,205 bushels last year, while the Atlantic exports, flour included, have been 2,185,278 bushels, against 1,280,013 bushels last year. The movement of corn continues so large as to materially affect the demand for wheat, western receipts having been 1,913,862 bushels for the week, against 1,946,045 bushels last year, and Atlantic exports 4,291,629 bushels, against 1,065,396 bushels last year.

"The cotton and other textile manufacturers are slowly gaining in business, though print cloths and most staple cottons remain unchanged in price, and restriction of output seems to have given some relief to the market. The iron and steel industry has been staggered, so to speak, by the decision of the Supreme court affecting railroads, since it is apprehended that purchases not only of rails but of cars, locomotives and bridge materials may be affected. The demand for rails is still considerable and one order is pending for 10,000 tons for Japan.

THE WORK AT GRANT'S TOMB.

Preparations Under Way for Elaborate Memorial Ceremonies.

New York, April 3.—The preparations for the Grant memorial inauguration ceremonies make rapid progress. Frank Damrosch says that the musical part of the program at the tomb will occupy about twenty minutes. He wants to have a chorus of 2,000 voices, but thus far provision has been made for only 1,000.

The pressure for tickets on the stands is tremendous. There are 2,400 subscribers to the Grant monument fund who contributed $500 or more. Tickets will be given to each of these and to members of their families.

Govs. Drake of Iowa and Adams of Colorado have sent regrets, but Gov. Atkinson of West Virginia, about whose attendance there was some doubt, sends word that he and his staff will be in line. President Diaz of Mexico has sent regrets. The Young Men's Republican club of Baltimore, which was famous in its support of Grant for a third term, and several of whose members were of the 306, have informed Grand Marshal Dodge that it would appreciate an official invitation to be present in a body.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians asks a place in the parade for 10,000 men.

Defeats Gov. Pingree's Plan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 3.—The soldiers' home board has changed its rules, giving the commandant and other officers tenure for life or during good behavior. They have been elected annually. This was done Friday after Gov. Pingree had left town. He attended the morning session and prevented the usual election until the legislative investigating committee should report, and then the board did away with the election entirely.

Flying Machine in Michigan.

Niles, Mich., April 3.—In many towns in southwestern Michigan people say that last Thursday night they saw an airship. At Galesburg about 10 o'clock that night people heard a sharp, crackling sound, and saw a brilliant white light in the sky. Several of the spectators are positive they saw a huge black object tipped with flame at a great distance above the earth and moving northward. Some declared they heard human voices coming from the object.

Gen. Carrillo Still Alive.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 3.—A letter received here Friday by Justo Carrillo from his brother, Gen. Francisco Carrillo, who commands the Cuban forces in Santa Clara province, shows that the recently published report of his death is untrue. He writes to deny the Spanish account, and says that he was wounded slightly by a bullet at the battle in which Gen. Serafin Sanchez was killed.

Blood in Draper's Office.

Jacksonville, Ill., April 3.—Sensational developments in the Hastings murder case have been made. A search of C. L. Draper's office has disclosed several articles soaked with blood. Some valuable papers belonging to Judge Kirby were found there, and will be replevined by him. A lamp and several articles of furniture also show blood stains. Draper still persists in claiming his innocence.

Crown Prince Not Dead.

Washington, April 3.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch from the consul general at San Francisco stating that the recent reports of the death of the crown prince of Japan and the succession of Prince Arisgowa as heir apparent were entirely unfounded.

LITTLE WORK DONE BY LEGISLATORS

SHORT SESSION HELD AT MADISON TODAY.

Governor Scofield Vetoes the McGillvary Anti-Trust Bill on the Grounds of Its Unconstitutionality—Could Not Table Resolutions to Surrender Passes—Bills Put Over.

Madison, Wis., April 2.—[Special]—Both houses of the legislature held short sessions this morning, but no work of importance was done.

An effort was made by Mr. Hincles, of Columbia county, to table the resolution offered by Mr. Barnum requiring the members to surrender their railway passes to the chief clerk, but it failed, and the matter was laid over until Tuesday.

All the bills on the calendar for passage went over until Wednesday evening.

The senate received the governor's veto of the McGillvary's anti-trust bill, the grounds of the veto being the bills unconstitutional.

MAYOR FOSTER ACQUITTED.

Sensational Trial at Bloomington Ends in His Favor.

Bloomington, Ill., April 3.—The jury in the trial of Mayor Daniel T. Foster for assisting a prisoner to escape from the city jail returned a verdict of not guilty at 9 o'clock Friday. There was another charge entered against the mayor—that of malfeasance in office. The judge called the case this morning as soon as the former verdict was rendered, but the state's attorney announced that the decision of that case was to depend upon the rendering of the former one, and although the attorney for Foster announced that his client was ready for trial, the case was not taken up.

Goes to Third Reading.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—The democrats made a great row in the House Friday over the advancement of the bill for the establishment of a State Board of Pardons. It was called up as an appropriation measure. The bill contains the provisions for an appropriation to carry on the expenses of the board. The democrats objected, but the speaker refused to listen to them. The democrats were exceedingly angry, but the bill went to third reading just the same. It will be taken up next Wednesday and passed. The democrats will make the same fight, but it will do them no good. The bill will go through the senate without any trouble, and will doubtless become a law.

Deadlock Is Still Unbroken.

Frankfort, Ky., April 3.—The deadlock continues. Whenever any sign of a break to Hunter appears the opposition raises a point of no quorum. The Republican and Democratic steering committees reached an agreement by which only a formal ballot is to be taken for senator today, and no effort will be made to elect. The situation now looks more like a permanent deadlock, ending in no election, than it has at any time during the session.

Narrow Escape from Death.

Belle Plaine, Iowa, April 3.—The trainmen and passengers on a Chicago Great Western train had a miraculous escape from instant death at Gladbrook, north of here, Thursday night. The high waters had washed away the approach to a bridge and a part of the train went into the ditch before it could be stopped. The fireman and engineer jumped or they would have been crushed to death.

Two Perish in Flames.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 3.—News was received here Friday morning of the burning of the Maple Leaf hotel, at Richmond, Mo. Two boarders, named James Kerman and Frank Anderson, perished in the flames. A frame boarding house adjoining the hotel building was also destroyed. The total loss on both buildings is estimated at $3,000, with insurance at $2,000.

Appeal to Christian Peoples.

Canea, April 3.—The Bishop of Canea has sent a message of fervent appeal to the Christian peoples of Europe, imploring them to compel their governments to stop bombarding and to cease opposing the unanimous desire of Cretans to escape tyranny by a union with Greece.

Indiana Oil Men Excited.

Anderson, Ind., April 3.—Agents of oil companies made a stampede for the recorder's office Friday and hundreds of acres of land in the north of the county have been put under lease. This is the result of the Standard opening a new field in that locality. The well was bored in Thursday night and is a gusher of a record-breaking type.

Steamer Goes to the Bottom.

Columbia, Ala., April 3.—The steamer J. F. C. Griggs of the Independent line sank in the Chattahoochee river at midnight Thursday night, near this point. Five persons are reported lost.

THE WEEKS WORK AT THE CAPITOL

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE AT MADISON.

Final Adjournment Cannot Occur Before April 22—Fight Insurance Battle Over Again—The Cigarette Measure—To Kill the Pass Bill—The Pere Marquette Statue.

MADISON, Wis., April 3.—[Special]—The legislature has disposed of several important bills this week, but there are others to come which will take much time and April 22 is likely to be the earliest date on which final adjournment can be reached. Among the important bills disposed of, or nearly so, are the fish and game bill, the anti-pool law, and the levy of a state tax. The ghost of the anti-pool bill arose in the senate last night, and Senator Burke moved to re-consider the vote in which the senate concurred in the measure, and to lay the motion over until next Thursday. Senatorial courtesy to a lonely democrat is mainly responsible for the fact that no objection was made to the motion, but it is not believed the bill has any danger of defeat before it.

The insurance battle is to be fought all over again. While Commissioner Frick's revised code was killed in the senate Friday, fifteen other bills to take its place were introduced by members of the committee which had under consideration and while they have not yet been printed for inspection it is believed that they contain many of the features which were so strongly objected to in the original code. Each will be fought out separately on the floor, and this alone will take considerable time.

Cigarettes at a Premium.
Cigarettes will probably be at a premium in Wisconsin within a very few days as the Hurd anti-cigarette act passed by the assembly this week appears in a very fair way to become a law, as a majority of the senators appear kindly disposed towards the measure. Probably no bill which has been introduced at this session has been more liberally backed by petitions than this anti-cigarette bill. First there was the mile long white cambric petition from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union requesting some action on the cigarette evil and in addition to that have been innumerable smaller petitions.

Kill Pass Bill.
Notwithstanding A. E. Hall's apparent victory in securing the passage of his anti-pass resolution to engrossment and third reading in the assembly, it is safe to predict that it will never be finally adopted, at least by the present legislature. The responsibility for its death is likely to be divided. According to good authority the plan is to have the assembly pass the measure. When it is sent over to the senate that body is expected to amend it, by a clause which will provide that members shall be allowed mileage once a week to and from home during the session. As this would in some cases mean an item of $1,500 or thereabouts for each of several of the members for mileage alone, it would be unreasonable to expect the assembly to concur in this amendment, and the resolution is expected to thereupon become the shuttlecock in a game in which each house will yield a battledore and keep the measure bobbing back and forth between them until it is lost in the shuffle and excitement of the last days of the session.

The Pere Marquette Statue.
The tabling of Assemblyman Sweeting's memorial to congress asking for the return of the Pere Marquette statue does not dispose of the subject by any means as many suppose. The committee on federal relations, which had this in charge, as well as the resolutions providing for the placing of statues of Gen. Rusk and Fairchild in the hall of representatives in the capital at Washington has been reported favorably, Mr. Sweeting dissenting. A substitute for these two latter resolutions which in effect also disposes of the Marquette statue as it is understood that congress is only waiting some expression of opinion from Wisconsin before sending the latter statue back. The inference that the Wisconsin legislature is in favor of such action could be easily drawn from the substitute reported by the committee, which in providing for statues of Rusk and Fairchild studiously avoids reference to the Marquette statue, but treats those for which it provides as an original proposition, though it is well known that there are places for but two Wisconsin statues in the hall at Washington.

Criticize Mr. Sweeting.

Those who have criticized Mr. Sweeting, who has all along opposed the Marquette memorial, which he introduced by request for insisting on its being taken out of the committee, contending that it would be better politics to let it die there, will be interested in knowing that he offered in the committee, of which he is a member, to let the Marquette memorial be pigeon-holed provided the substitute was treated in the same manner, but that the other members would not agree to this, but insisted on the substitute being presented on the floor. The purpose of this is readily seen by a careful reading of the substitute, which is as follows:

Section Number One.

"Section 1. By section numbered 1814 of the revised statutes of the United States, each of the states is invited to present to congress to be placed in the capitol of the United States at Washington, marble or bronze statues of two of its deceased residents who have been illustrious for their historic renown, or for their distinguished military services, such as the state shall determine to be worthy of this national commemoration; and it is hereby enacted that General Lucius Fairchild and General Jeremiah M. Rusk be and are hereby designated by the state of Wisconsin as such persons.

Section No. 2.

"Section No. 2. The governor is hereby authorized to arrange at such a time as he deems the conditions of the treasury of the state will justify such expenditure, to have placed in the hall of said house of representatives statues of General Lucius Fairchild and General Jeremiah M. Rusk, distinguished for their civil services to the state of Wisconsin, of which they were citizens for more than half a century.

"Section 3. And there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $20,000 to be used in carrying the law into effect."

The Bicycle Bill.

One of the hardest fights which is being made here this session is by the wheelmen of the state to secure the passage of a bill requiring the railway companies to carry bicycles as baggage. With every possible argument they have attempted to convince the legislature of the necessity of passing some such law. They have been met at every turn by the railway lobby who have been fighting the law tooth and nail. At the quarter turn the lobby had a good lead, having killed the senate bill on the subject, but the wheelmen have caught up with them again and are now making a hard fight to get under the wire first. As the matter now stands, there is before the assembly with a request for its passage, a compromise measure which requires the railway companies to transport free with every ticket costing over fifty cents, one bicycle.

Clause Is Attached.

There is however a clause tacked on to the bill which does not require the company to transport the bicycles on the same train with passengers if without notification, a large number of wheelmen suddenly swarm down on them at any station. Just how the bicyclists will accept this bill it is hard to say but they may think that half a loaf is better than a stone and endorse it. In even this they will be winning a victory, as there has been no measure before the legislature this session which has been received with more enthusiasm by the railroad lobby than this bicycle baggage bill. They objected to bicycles being in any way shape or manner made baggage and have directed all the influence which a railway commands toward killing any bill which appeared on the subject.

DEALERS BUY LEAF HAND OVER HAND

CROP GATHERED IN WITH RAPIDITY.

Warehouses Are Filled With Goods Which Are Being Held For a Rise in Price—Rates Have Doubled in a Single Season, Which is a Remarkable Change.

The most surprising thing about the extraordinary movement of tobacco during the past winter has been the rapidity with which it was gathered in from the hands of the producer. In October last the tobacco growers of this state held on their farms an equivalent of at least three full crops—probably not less than 200,000 cases of Wisconsin leaf—the growth of from '92 to '96. It would be a difficult thing now to find 2,000 cases of all growths remaining in the first hands if the state was to be thoroughly canvassed. It is remarkable that so much leaf should have been moved out so quickly and the wonder is where it has gone to after its disappearance. Aside from what is known to have been exported, which will doubtless not reach one-half the gross amount, the balance is somewhere yet in the country. The '96 crop is of course stored away in the warehouses of the state. The most of the local warehouses are also full of old leaf.

Held For Speculation.

It is well known that very little of the tobacco bought since the holidays has yet gone to the manufacturers. Hence a supposition is that the great bulk of old goods not exported is held by the dealers for speculative purposes. The prices which are now being offered local packers for similar goods indicate that the speculators now having got control of the stock of old domestic leaf, do not intend to part with it except at a very large advance from the first cost. Whether they will be able to hold the corner they established remains to be seen. It is evident that the rush after old stock the past few months was prompted by a speculative demand, the like of which the tobacco trade has not witnessed for a good many years. It has been a long time, says the Edgerton Reporter, since prices have advanced for certain grades of leaf 100 per cent in a single season, as we have seen them do right here the past few months.

The Local Market.

With a slight improvement in the roads there comes more riding on the part of the buyers and every farmer that has any tobacco is carefully watched and frequently importuned to part with his holdings. Any farmer having a good crop can get a good price for it now.

The volume of transactions is some smaller than for some weeks past, the Leaf says, owing largely to the bad condition of the roads. T. E. Welsh has bought 100 cases of old goods and 150 cases of new; G. H. Rumrill sold 125 cases and A. N. Jones bought 100 cases '96 for export. S. B. Heddles sold one car of old and bought several lots of the farmers. F. S. Baines, J. M. Thayer, Robert Erler, A. N. Jones, G. H. Rumrill, T. E. Welsh, E. M. Calkins and others are dealing considerable at present. A. L. Fisher bought 31 cases of old goods.

Sorting Rooms Closed.

Some two or three warehouses will finish assorting this week and one or two have opened, but the assorting season is drawing near to a close. There is a good call for samples and shipments are fairly liberal. The farmers are now turning their attention toward the new crop and some have put their seed asoak.

THE SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Last Session of the Old Body Held Last Night.

The last session of the present school board was held at the new high school building last night. Commissioner Hayner was elected chairman, President Goldin being absent. The monthly report of the clerk showed cash on hand amounting to $9,260.59, or $1,300 more than the sum on hand on April 1, 1896. Bills amounting to $154.47 were ordered paid on the report of Chairman Clemens of the finance committee. The laying of a hard wood floor in the gymnasium was postponed, the matter of repairing the fence at the Lincoln school was left with the building committee; some routine business was done; and the board adjourned.

Greater New York will be the second city in the world. Its mayor will serve four years and control a patronage almost equal to that of president of the United States. No wonder Tammany is prepared to make the fight of its history for the first mayor.

Two years in the city clerk's office has given A. E. Badger opportunity to show his qualifications and to satisfy tax payers that their belief in him was not misplaced. He will be re-elected by a large majority.

Look out for bigger majority than ever from the first ward this year. Few wards get a chance to elect two republican aldermen in one year, and the first means to take advantage of the opportunity.

George Palmer—quiet, practical and business like—will make the city a good street commissioner and will be able to show a dollars worth of work for every dollar spent.

Republicans are satisfied with their ticket and will support it to a man. It is by far the best ticket in the field and it stands for all that is most desirable for Jamesville.

C. L. Valentine's efficiency in the school board has been proved and his stand for economy in city affairs is in full accord with his record.

GROOM MISSED THE WEDDING.

His Failure Had a Depressing Effect on the Assembled Guests.

There is lively interest, not 200 miles from the city, in a wedding that bad roads or bashfulness prevented. The groom had arranged the furniture in his new home; the wedding dinner was ready; the hour was set; the minister had put away his shot gun and turned his back for a day on the allurements of duck shooting. As the time drew near, however, the groom failed to put in his appearance. After a little the bride's temper arose and she started for town. She spent the afternoon shopping, the minister spent his mourning over the loss of several canvass-backs, and the neighbors put in their time wondering about the next chapter.

The creeks have been swelled to over twice their normal size, and the damage has been more extensive than in years, on account of the flooding of pasture and arden land.

A New spring Wrap or Jacket

Need not be hard to buy if you go to the right place for it. This means both as regards price and style. Some stores have stylish garments but they are hard to pay for. Others have low priced garments, but its hard to be suited with them. The right combination is styles that please and prices that are easy to pay. That's what you'll find them, and a perusal of prices and a visit to the department will convince you of this fact. T. P. Burns.

Has No Special Significance.

Washington, April 3.—Secretary Long is authority for the statement that the orders of the flagship Philadelphia to proceed to Honolulu have no significance. The reason for the change is said to be a belief on the part of the secretary of the navy that from the importance of Honolulu commercially and otherwise the United States should have a ship of higher class than the Marion stationed there.

Gov. Atkinson's Son Elopes.

Atlanta, Ga., April 3.—J. P. Atkinson, the 17-year-old son of Gov. Atkinson, and Ada Bryan Byrd, aged 14, eloped Friday morning. They took a train for Tennessee, but, fearing detection, they left the train, secured a horse and buggy at Kingston and left for Rome. The parents of the youthful couple have offered a reward for their detention, if apprehended before the marriage takes place.

Four Murderers Hanged Together.

INDIAN WISDOM.

Their knowledge of the Curative Properties of Herbs considered remarkable.

A noted Professor, Dr. C. von Spiegel of Saratoga, N. Y., credits them with many remedies used by him in effecting difficult cures.

Useful hints to many who suffer, where they might enjoy the Indian's proverbial good health and longevity but for the prejudice of Ignorance.

The once existing idea that no possible good or knowledge could be obtained from an Indian is fast disappearing.

When such a man as Dr. C. von Spiegel of Saratoga Springs, in an article published in the daily Saratogian of Sept. 14, states that he is indebted, not only to the North American Indians—Kickapoos, Cheyennes, Arapahoes, Pawnees, Apaches, Kiowas, Comanches, etc., but to the many so-called uncivilized nations of the most remote corners of the globe, for his enormous collection and the knowledge of their virtues, of roots, herbs, barks, gums and balsams, by whose use he has effected the most extraordinary cures in innumerable desperate cases, it would seem that the world at large should no longer hesitate to look for help from such simple but potent agencies—no matter their origin—instead of dragging out miserable lives of sickness that is aggravated by poisonous mineral drugs.

PROF. CHRISTIAN VON SPIEGEL, M.D.

With such words of praise from a man of Dr. von Spiegel's standing, a regular physician, a graduate and member of several universities, a man who has built up an enviable reputation by his many cures, some of which have been almost miraculous, we are doubly encouraged to call the attention of suffering humanity to the merits of our all-powerful specifics, The Kickapoo Indian Remedies. The best known of these is Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, that greatest of blood purifiers and corrector of all derangements of the stomach, kidneys and liver. It is purely vegetable and contains no poisonous ingredients whatever. Thousands are enjoying healthy, happy, active lives today, who but for its timely use would now be leading the miserable life of a dependent cripple, or filling a premature grave. Each day hundreds join the happy ones who have been cured by its use and sing its praise.

We want sufferers everywhere to give its single trial. You will be convinced of its merits and bless the day you first heard of Sagwa. All druggists sell it.

If you wish medical advice free, write us; one of our staff of physicians will gladly give you such information as you may desire. The Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., New Haven, Conn.

MEAN FIGHT MADE ON REPUBLICANS

THE FLIP-FLOP'S "NON-PARTISAN" TACTICS SURPRISING.

Personalities and Abuse Are Their Only Hope, So They Use Them Liberally—Chief of Police Hogan a Hard Democratic Worker and a A. P. A. Coat Doesn't Cover Him Now

The Flip-Flop never printed a more contemptible article in all its history, than was published this morning. The attack on Chief Spencer shows the calibre of the men who are managing the democratic campaign. Chief Spencer is not running for office, and there is not the slightest reason why mud should be thrown at him. Not thirty days ago the Flip-Flop was advocating a non-partisan system for city employees, and pleading for Chief of Police Hogan. Now the shoe is on the other foot, and without any cause whatever, the Flip-Flop turns its coarse abuse on Chief Spencer.

The Flip-Flop seems to be angry because the city bought Chief Spencer, of the fire department, a new desk. Seeing that the desk issue has been raised, it has been suggested that perhaps a search warrant would not be necessary in order to find a desk that was bought with city money in the Flip-Flop office. A $45 desk was bought for the clerk of the school board once upon a time, it will be remembered.

Hogan's "Non-Partisanship." If the Flip-Flop is sincere in its "non-partisan" theories it will promptly denounce Chief of Police Hogan, who, as everybody knows, is actively at work for the democratic ticket while drawing salary from the city treasury. Chief of Police Hogan has no business dabbling in politics, and the fact that he is now hard at work for the democratic party shows just how far his "non-partisanship" goes—just so far as it benefits John W. Hogan and the democrats. Chief Hogan has been hard at work in the first ward, trying to defeat the republican candidate for alderman. He has not even confined his wire pulling to his own ward, but has gone into a ward where he does not live to practice his justly celebrated "non-partisanship."

Chief Hogan is a democratic party worker first, and a police officer second, yet the Flip-Flop says nothing about his carryings-on, for he is one of the Flip-Flop ring.

The chief of police of the city of Janesville is not paid to do political work for either party; and when he neglects his duties to the people in order to serve his political friends, he should be called to account. But the Flip-Flop won't do it, because Hogan is a democrat.

Flip-Flop Forces Mean Campaign.

The Gazette regrets very much that the Flip-Flop has forced the kind of warfare that is being waged in this campaign. It is not pleasant to read such articles as the Flip-Flop has been writing. Personalities and abuse are not the weapons of the gentleman, and The Gazette regrets very much that such means are used in this campaign. But the Flip-Flop should not think that it can sit back and throw mud at everyone in sight, and escape unscathed.

W. S. Rice an Honest Man.

John W. Hogan and his friends and followers are making a hard fight on the republican nominee for alderman in the first ward. They have no reason to do so. Walter S. Rice is not a saloon keeper. He is not, nor has he ever been, the keeper of a gambling house. No lawlessness has ever been committed in any place for which he is responsible. Not one word can be said against his character. He is an honest hard working man, who has achieved success through his own efforts. His offence is that he is a law abiding republican. That in the eyes of the non-partisan chief of police, and his aides, is sufficient, so they slight their regular work to fight a republican nominee, simply because he is a republican.

Doesn't Hit Democratic A. P. A's.

There has been a good deal of talk, during this campaign, about A. P. A's. If the democratic chief of police wants to fight A. P. A's, he will not have to go outside of his own party. There are A. P. A's running on the democratic ticket, yet the democratic chief of police allows them because they are democrats. Therefore, the A. P. A. plea, which has been a popular one with the chief, does not hold water this year. It is a dodge, and nothing else, but is right in line with the chief's non-partisan tactics.

MEN BROKE OUT OF CLINTON JAIL

TWO ALLEGED BURGLARS MAKE ESCAPE.

They Are Thought to Have Been the Men Who Broke Into the Milton Bank, as They Had Goods Taken From That Establishment—Other News Notes.

While Clinton officials were trying to decide what to do with two alleged burglars, the latter gentlemen were busily engaged in making their escape from the village lockup. The men in custody were thought to be the couple who broke into the Gates store and bank at Milton Junction, and a part of the property stolen from that store was found on their persons.

Whether or not the men should be brought to this city for safe keeping, was the subject under discussion at the time the men escaped; when Constable Baldwin went to the calaboose at 7:30 o'clock last night, he was surprised to find that the men had broken out.

District Attorney Jackson was to go to Clinton this morning to prosecute the case, but a telegram reached him in time saying that the men had gotten away. It is said that they would surely have been convicted of the Gates robbery, as the police had much proof against them.

Lee's Eyesight Poor.

Newcomb Lee's eyesight is very poor when it comes to making out checks on Beloit banks and in consequence he is now lingering in a cell at the Rock county jail. Lee claims that through poor eye sight, a check cashed by him read $40 when it should have read 40 cents. The prisoner is a middle aged man and has been about Beloit all winter working at odd jobs.

He obtained a check on the First National bank of the Line City and then went to Fred W. Anderson's saloon on State street. Here Lee ordered a bottle of pop, and in payment presented the $40 check. Anderson accepted the check and at once went to the First National bank to cash it, but found that it was bogus. Anderson returned the paper to Lee and requested him to cash it. In the meantime Marshal George Appleby was informed of Lee's action, and he soon had him in safe keeping. Lee waived examination and is now in this city awaiting trial.

Sheriff Acheson was notified by telephone this morning, from Brooklyn, to be on the lookout for thieves who ransacked Connors Bros. general store in that city sometime during the night. It is said that an inventory of the stock will show that the thieves helped themselves to nearly a wagon load of hats, caps and clothing.

ARE LIKELY TO OPEN A SUMMER GARDEN

LOCAL MEN DISCUSS THE PLAN.

Street Railway Company Would Help the Scheme Along as It Would Mean Business For Them—Three Sites Are Now Being Considered—Mr. Blabon's Idea of the Plan.

It is now said that the modern summer garden is likely to be started in this city within the next few weeks. Several locations are now being seriously considered by local parties, who, for the present, wish their names withheld. It is believed that the scheme would pay well, and the street railway company would be glad to help the project along.

When George W. Blabon was in the city he stated that in his opinion a first class garden located on the outskirts of the town would pay if the facilities for reaching it were perfect. He said if no better place than the car barn at the corner of Eastern avenue and the Heloit road could be obtained, he would donate the building to the man who would conduct such a resort in an orderly and respectable manner.

Three locations, each of which would make an ideal spot are now being seriously considered. The Albert C. Bailey property on Eastern avenue contains a spacious grove which is located but a few rods from Eastern avenue. When the car track is extended to the new power house the cost of running the line to the Bailey property would be nominal. The company have been offered the right of way, it is said, free of charge.

Michael Buob, who conducts the Main street brewery, it is said, would be willing to have the garden located on his property. A small lake is on this property and the grounds could be made into an ideal garden.

The promoters of the enterprise also have their eye on a location on Milton avenue, just outside the city limits.

A NEW WOMAN'S CLUB.

Frenchwomen Recognize the Importance of Such Organizations.

Paris has at last a genuine woman's club—not an association for business purposes of women belonging to some particular trade or profession nor an organization of the charitably disposed to facilitate almsgiving. Both of these are old story there. The new departure is a departure indeed from French custom, for it is founded on a plan not dissimilar to that of our own English women's clubs. The members have indeed been so sensible of its exotic nature in France that they have given it an English name, the "Ladies' club," with the possessive case as here written. It is only surprising that the title is so nearly right as it is, for the ignorance of the English language shown by the French who quote it is something astonishing. However, to return to the "Ladies' club," it has an establishment of its own, with various apartments and a restaurant. Its friends are pleading hard for the innovation, which does not seem to meet with universal approval. Women seeking admission must offer the gravest guarantees of morality, and to avoid arousing domestic dissensions, no married woman is eligible to membership unless she can show the written permission of her husband. Another regulation of the club will seem somewhat amusing to American women—the rule that no games of hazard and no playing for money shall be allowed. Free as our manners are considered by the French people, we have never found it necessary to establish any such law in our clubs.

The illustration shows an evening gown of yellow satin and mousseline de soie to match. The skirt of satin has a demitrain, and is adorned with two ropes of flowers, which are draped upon it in the form of vandykes. Violets in bunches, alternating with foliage, are the flowers employed. The bodice is of yellow mousseline de soie draped over yellow satin, the short, puffed sleeves terminating in a double frill. The décolletage is V shaped at the back, while in front it is outlined with flowers and leaves, which also head the sleeve frills. The belt is of green velvet, forming a small bow at the back. JUDIC CHOLLET.

SPRING NOVELTIES.

Red Hats and Their Advantages—A Green Silk Costume.

Among the spring novelties are parasols with a shirred silk lining, which forms pulls between the ribs when the parasol is open. There are also parasols with accordion plaited covers of silk, grasscloth and other thin fabrics. The cover is put on outside of the regular smooth silk covering, and is edged with lace. Parasols in two tones are seen, white, for example, with an edge and ruffle of violet crepe de chine. There are also sets composed of hat, parasol and cape to match, elaborately trimmed. One of these is of black and white dotted veiling, used in the form of puffing and ruches. The hat is made of the veiling and trimmed with red poppies, black lace and ribbon. The short cape is similarly constructed, and the parasol is covered with the veiling.

Red hats of straw, silk or mousseline de soie threaten to have a decided vogue this summer. They are certainly picturesque and have the additional advantage of toning down the effect of sunburn. No matter how red the face may be, a red hat over it will bleach it out to a certain tint.

Now that frills and plaitings of tulle, gauze, mousseline de soie and lace are so much employed for trimming bodices and millinery, a great variety may be found at the shops made into collars or sold by the yard. There are all widths, colors and degrees of fullness, and a great deal of time and trouble are saved by the use of this ready made frilling. Silk ruffles also, of plain or changeable taffeta, may be obtained by the yard for the inside of the foot of skirts and for the trimming of petticoats.

Green, which has enjoyed so much favor this winter, continues to be fashionable and is seen in many of the spring novelties. The costume illustrated is of aloe green silk, and has a straight skirt adorned around the foot with three ruffles. Above the upper one is a band of black embroidery. The bodice, which is plain and close fitting at the back, has a plaited chemise of pink mousseline de soie. The round collar and the revers of pink silk, covered with black embroidery, are bordered with a narrow ruffle of green. The cuffs match the revers, and a frill of white lace finishes the neck and sleeves. The belt is of black satin, tied at the side. The toque, of black, spangled neapolitan lured, is trimmed with green ribbon, yellow feathers and clusters of purple violets. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Caught While Herding in Colorado

Clung to Him While a Commercial Traveler in the Middle West, Notwithstanding all Efforts to Get Rid of It. Hot Springs of Arkansas, of no Avail.

From the Chronicle, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. William Clement, of Freeport, Illinois, is a well-known commercial traveler, and represents the large Chicago house of Read, Welsh & Leach. In his early life Mr. Clement migrated to the breezy west and became a cowboy in Colorado. After doing as much at cow punching as he desired, he turned his attention to mining, the exposure from which and his life on the plains undermined a once strong constitution, and rheumatism, liver and kidney trouble and dropsy made their unwelcome appearance.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas were visited in the hope of relief, but he was disappointed, and so he took up his residence in Illinois, and obtained employment as a drummer for a large house in Chicago that has long since gone out of business. Physicians were consulted both at home and while on the road, with only pecuniary benefit to the doctors, for Mr. Clement grew worse instead of better, and constantly had to lay up for weeks at a time.

It was then that the sufferer conceived the idea of trying Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and did so.

"I thought," Mr. Clement said to the reporter, "that fifty cents would not be much expenditure, so I bought a box of the pills and began taking them according to directions."

"I did not have many days to wait before I found a marked improvement in my condition, so I kept on with the treatment. First my kidneys began to do their work thoroughly and well, and all blost left me. Then the rheumatism and pain in the region of the heart went, my liver is cured, and I may say I am as well as ever I was. If I had only known of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a few years before, I should be a good many thousand dollars richer."

As usual, when such testimonials are received at the office of Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., they are sent for verification to the leading druggists of the vicinity or other persons in good standing. The above was not an exception, notwithstanding Mr. Clement's excellent reputation, and the returned reports certified that all of the foregoing statements made to the reporter were strictly true.

An analysis of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills shows that they contain, in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female, and all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—(they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

DOG STOPS RUNAWAYS

HANGS ON TO THE HORSE UNTIL HE STOPS.

He is a Popular Hero—Dragged and Taunted for Squares, But Was Rewarded by Finally Stopping the Animal.

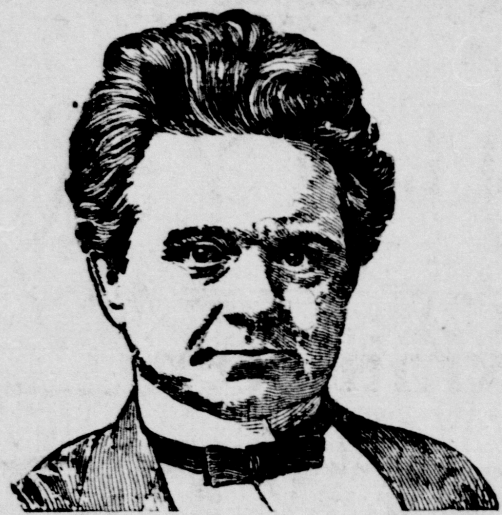

HE bulldog has found a new mission. His peculiar tenacity of grip, combined with firmness of purpose, has made him of service in a good cause. He has become an important factor in the stopping of runaways, and from being an object of almost universal aversion and suspicion, bids fair to become a popular hero. The particular dog that has brought about this important state of affairs is the property of City Councilman H. Bungay, of Spokane, Wash., says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "Pat" is the name of the clever animal. There is nothing particularly attractive in his appearance. His lower jaw has that same ugly appearance that has prejudiced the public minds against animals of this class. It is Pat's jaw, however, that has gained him fame. Mr. Bungay has a store in Spokane, and in front of his place of business, whenever the weather would permit, Pat has been in the habit of taking up his station. His original task was to guard the store from all the nuisances that walked in that direction, and in this capacity he has long been unequalled. Mr. Bungay has spent no little time in teaching him that when a horse and buggy were left in front of the store it was the intention to have them remain there until the person who left them returned and took possession. Several times horses which have been temporarily stationed in front of the store have taken the notion to wander on. Each time Pat has interposed an objection that always had weight, for he is a stocky dog and weighs a good deal more than his looks would lead one to think. The climax in Pat's career came a few days ago, when, as he was lying on the steps of the store apparently sleeping peacefully, a horse and buggy came dashing down the street at a tremendous pace. The buggy was empty, for the horse had broken his hitching strap, which was swinging wildly in the air as the frightened animal tore down Sprague street. Pat comprehended the situation at a glance. As the horse neared the Bungay store Pat gathered himself together on the sidewalk and waited. A moment later the spectators saw a white dog swinging in all directions at the end of that portion of the hitching strap which remained attached to the horse. For a few seconds the horse did not seem to mind the animal that clung like grim death to the hitching strap. Pat would swing wide of the horse and up in the air, and then come down with a thud that made the people who heard it sorry for him. Every time he came down, however, he braced himself and gave the horse's head a vigorous pull. The results of Pat's methods was that within a comparatively short distance the runaway was brought to a standstill. The dog, rather scratched and a good deal bruised, sat calmly down by the foaming horse, pulling the strap at intervals, as if to say: "You might just as well stop first as last when I get hold of the strap." Of course, there were any quantity of men ready to hold the horse after Pat stopped it, although none of them had exhibited the least inclination to get in its way while it was on the run.

Since the seal family at the zoo has increased to seven members the big tanks in which they reside are sought out by great numbers of visitors, and especially at 4 o'clock each afternoon the crowds gather around to see Keeper Geiger perform with his pets. At that hour the keeper comes out with a bucket of fish in his hand, trots along a plank over the surface of the water to a mound of rocks in the center of the tank and assumes a heroic pose on top of the eminence. Then with an introductory bow to the audience he whistles to the seals and distributes the fish. The seals cluster about him at the base of the mound in a picturesque group and reach up their heads to receive the food, which he deftly tosses down their yawning mouths. If the fish go in head first they are gulped down with an avidity that would put the patron of an Eighth street lunch counter to shame, but if by chance they strike the other way about the scales are apt to catch in the rough upper surface of the seal's mouth and cause momentary choking. When the fish are tossed into the water and have to be dived for the seals never make a mistake but invariably swallow them the right way.—Philadelphia Record.

Professor J. M. Munyon. Professor Munyon says that 90 per cent of the people are miserable on account of some disease of the stomach. He claims his Dyspepsia remedy will positively cure all forms of indigestion and stomach trouble, such as rising of food, distress after eating, shortness of breath, palpitation, and all affections of the heart caused by indigestion; wind on the stomach, bad taste, of enervated breath, loss of appetite, faintness or weakness of the stomach, headache from indigestion, soreness of the stomach, coated tongue, heartburn, shooting pains of the stomach, constipation, dizziness, faintness and lack of energy, cold feet, poor circulation and nervousness. It tones up the system, strengthens the nerves, enriches the blood and forms a new coating in worn-out stomachs or those that have been impaired by physic or injurious medicines. Prof. Munyon has a separate cure for each disease. At all druggists, mostly 25 cents a vial. Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1305 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.
